

DOCKS.

PORT OF AMOY.

SHIPOWNERS, AGENTS, AND CO.—MANDEES are informed that the COMPANY'S Establishments at the Amoy Port afford every facility, at moderate charges, for the repair and construction of all kinds of REPAIRING AND SPARRING VESSELS, and CLEANING AND PAINTING IRON SHIPS AND STEAMERS.

THEIR LARGE GRANITE DOCK, of the length of 100 feet, and of an average spring tide of 16 to 17 feet, is a CAISSON GATE, and POWERFUL CENTRAL. And an Engineer's workshop fitted with Lathes and Drills, driven by steam. Iron and Brass Foundries, Boiler-makers shop, a large Smithy, and Carpenter and Boat-builders' shops. All superintended by resident Europeans.

Their two smaller GRANITE DOCKS can receive, at spring tide, Vessels drawing 15 feet.

Spars, Timber, and other Dock-yard material kept in stock.

Quarries for OFFICE, and a DRY GROUND for STORES, of Vessels under repair.

At 211, Amoy, December, 1868.

FOUR-ROW DOCK.

RIVER MINE.

THE above granite DOCK, of the following dimensions, viz: Length, 100 feet, Breadth at Bottom, 40 feet, is capable of receiving Vessels drawing 13 to 16 feet, as the state of the River will allow. The Dock runs dry to the Blocks and is pumped out by Steam. The above premises comprise a large Machine Shop, containing a 12-inch SCREW CUTTING GAIR LATHES.

DRILLING AND HEAVING MACHINES, A LARGE SHED, &c., &c., &c. Large STOCK of WOOD, IRON, &c., always on hand. The Dock Steam Tug WONG is available at all times to tow vessels to or from Sea, at current rates, on application to

JOHN C. HENNING, Agent.

The List of Charges for lighting or re-lighting vessels can be obtained from Messrs. DE SILVA & CO., Hongkong.

Messrs. LANE, GARDNER & CO., Shanghai, if desired.

The Chronicle and Directory for 1870.

NOW READY.

The Edition for 1870 is now ready for Delivery.

As already announced, the Directory is published in Two Forms: Complete at $5, or with the List of Residents and Port Directories only, at $3.

Copy may be obtained at the Daily Press Office, and of the following Agents:—

Messrs. DUNN & CO. S.W. Canton.

Messrs. WILSON, NICHOLSON & CO., Amoy.

The delivery of the Daily Press from this office commenced on Tuesday morning at 10.30, and the last number left the office at 10.40.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, AUGUST 17th, 1870.

The mail news of the Daily Press will be published at 7 A.M. to-morrow.

This Edition and the materials with reference to the Tientsin disturbances are of an extremely unsatisfactory nature. As noticed yesterday, the final Imperial Edict does not admit the Roman Catholic Missionaries of being concerned in kidnapping and in kidnapping children's eyes; but, on the contrary, leaves it to be distinctly inferred that, in some instances they did so; while it will be noticed that the charge made to the effect that the whole disturbance arose in consequence of Mons. FORTANIER firing off a pistol in CHOW HOA's garden, which has now been abundantly proved to be false, is steadily adhered to. The pistol was fired by Mr. FORTANIER on his way back from CHOW HOA's after he had received a spear wound at the yamen gate, and upon his seeing Mr. SRAO fell in the street by a sword cut. Notwithstanding this, the Authorities still adhere persistently to the falsehood that the people rose in consequence of the shot supposed to have been fired in the Yamen; a statement, whose untruth is manifest, inasmuch as the attack on the Consulate commenced before the Consul left, and very shortly after Mons. FORTANIER's departure. Mr. THOMASIAN was there murdered. In the memorial, which CHOW HOA presents, praying to be punished—a prayer which he may yet possibly find more fully complied with than he deserves—he makes the same misstatement, representing the whole affair as a sudden outbreak of the people on the pistol being fired, while he falls into the unfortunate inconsistency of at the same time asking that the Intendant of Circuit may be punished for incapacity to adopt, before the outbreak, the measures necessary to have prevented it. If it resulted merely from the "ten thousand" people becoming excited, and was, in point of fact, a mere accident, it is somewhat difficult to understand what particular measures were to be taken to prevent it. The suggestion in this part of the memorial shows that, according to the Chinese Officials' own admission, the affair was no sudden outbreak, but had been carefully planned—as is also shown conclusively by a large concurrence of circumstances.

It is in fact evident that the Chinese, as unfortunately is always their custom, will not grant satisfaction for the outrage to anything but fear. The men, who have been appointed to "investigate," TANG-KO-KAI and CHOW HOA, the latter proved to be the former currently reported, to be deeply concerned in the affair, offer security for a peaceful solution of the difficulty. It seems that in reality the whole question turns upon the will of TANG-KO-KAI, and he is notorious for the hostility which he has long entertained towards foreigners. If he refuse compliance with the orders from Peking, all that is known of his goes to show that the authorities there will be unable to "force" him to obey. He has for a lengthened time defied them, it is certain that he will not risk his credit with his adherents by yielding to their commands at such a crisis as the present. The chief hope of a peaceful solution consists in the possibility that TANG-KO-KAI's party may be overpowered so soon as they see distinct evidence of a determination on the part of foreigners to resort to force, if the demands made be not complied with. The experience of all our dealings with the Chinese shows that ulterior considerations will not affect them in cases of this kind. There are no used to evasion, that, until they see the force actually marshalled for an attack, they cannot be brought to believe that one will occur. Up to the present, they have evidently done nothing more than temporise, and it is to be feared, until some very definite action be taken, they will continue in this attitude, to the farther danger of foreigners, and ultimately to still further danger and disaster to themselves.

The northern papers announce the departure of Sir EDWARD HOERNER, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for China, and Japan, and are unanimous in their eulogiums of his conduct, both in his official and private capacity, during his five years' tenure of office. As already noticed, a very flattering address was presented to him by the Shanghai community, so that it appears the newspapers are giving utterance only to the feeling of respect generally current, and which, being no question, is well merited. Sir EDWARD HOERNER has to perform the somewhat delicate task of establishing on the basis of the exterritorial jurisdiction, at the Treaty Ports, a system of legal proceedings which, while in the main it should be consonant with the principles of English Law, should nevertheless be made applicable to the peculiar circumstances existing in China and Japan. In doing this, it must be confessed he has succeeded admirably. A shrewd lawyer, and one well versed in home procedure, he never allowed himself to be carried away by mere formalities or routine; but, with a happy intuition, seized the true bearing of every point, and dealt always towards the administration of the Law in its broad spirit, and in accordance with its obvious ends. In this, he set an admirable example and encouraged a tone of sound common sense in the proceedings in Court, while he invariably discouraged technical quibbling, when opposed to the broad justice of any given case. As is noticed by the northern papers, the chief proof of his success as a Judge, is that very few of his decisions have been reversed on appeal; while, as a rule, suitors have felt satisfied that the fullest care and consideration has been given to their cases. With the local Bar, Sir EDWARD HOERNER was always upon terms of agreement, and he continued, by his genial and courteous disposition, to elevate both their position and his own—causing a tone of orderliness and dignity to pervade the Courts, which has tended greatly to raise both the Legal Profession and the Law in the eyes of the public.

On the whole, very few will be disposed to deny that Sir EDWARD HOERNER has accomplished the task which devolved upon him ably, or to doubt that the Courts, which he has inaugurated, will be a permanent good to residents in China. Out of Court, Sir EDWARD HOERNER commanded much respect by the manner in which he joined in all matters of public interest; and in many instances, his advice and assistance have been of great advantage; while, as a private gentleman, he won the good opinion of all by the natural courtesy and gentleness of his bearing. His departure cannot but be a matter of regret, and it is not too much to say that he carries with him the good wishes of all, who have had an opportunity of becoming acquainted with his merits, either in his public or private capacity. It is fortunate that he leaves an able successor in Mr. C. W. GOODWIN, a gentleman not only celebrated for his learning, but well known for his dignity of character, his strict sense of justice, and his untiring care in estimating the merits of the cases that come before him.

Latest advice from Bombay states that the principles Elmslie, Whitwell, Harriot, and Marks, convicted of burning the Aurora, were sentenced on the 20th July—Elmslie and Whitwell to Penal Servitude for life, Captain Harriot to fifteen, and Marks the carpenter to ten years penal servitude.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

BREVON JAMES RUSSELL, Esq. August 16th.

NOT A "BENICIA" BOY.

Michael Conway, of Ireland, a seaman belonging to the Wong, was arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

BENICIA BOY, A BROTHER.

William J. Burke, of France, Frank Hayward, of the Wong, and William Brown, of the Wong, were arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

AN INJURED MAN.

John Taylor, A.B., British Burglar, Yenka, was arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

THEIR LARGE GRANITE DOCK, of the length of 100 feet, and of an average spring tide of 16 to 17 feet, is a CAISSON GATE, and POWERFUL CENTRAL. And an Engineer's workshop fitted with Lathes and Drills, driven by steam. Iron and Brass Foundries, Boiler-makers shop, a large Smithy, and Carpenter and Boat-builders' shops. All superintended by resident Europeans.

Their two smaller GRANITE DOCKS can receive, at spring tide, Vessels drawing 15 feet.

Spars, Timber, and other Dock-yard material kept in stock.

Quarries for OFFICE, and a DRY GROUND for STORES, of Vessels under repair.

At 211, Amoy, December, 1868.

FOUR-ROW DOCK.

RIVER MINE.

THE above granite DOCK, of the following dimensions, viz: Length, 100 feet, Breadth at Bottom, 40 feet, is capable of receiving Vessels drawing 13 to 16 feet, as the state of the River will allow. The Dock runs dry to the Blocks and is pumped out by Steam. The above premises comprise a large Machine Shop, containing a 12-inch SCREW CUTTING GAIR LATHES.

DRILLING AND HEAVING MACHINES, A LARGE SHED, &c., &c., &c. Large STOCK of WOOD, IRON, &c., always on hand. The Dock Steam Tug WONG is available at all times to tow vessels to or from Sea, at current rates, on application to

JOHN C. HENNING, Agent.

The List of Charges for lighting or re-lighting vessels can be obtained from Messrs. DE SILVA & CO., Hongkong.

Messrs. LANE, GARDNER & CO., Shanghai, if desired.

The Chronicle and Directory for 1870.

NOW READY.

The Edition for 1870 is now ready for Delivery.

As already announced, the Directory is published in Two Forms: Complete at $5, or with the List of Residents and Port Directories only, at $3.

Copy may be obtained at the Daily Press Office, and of the following Agents:—

Messrs. DUNN & CO. S.W. Canton.

Messrs. WILSON, NICHOLSON & CO., Amoy.

The delivery of the Daily Press from this office commenced on Tuesday morning at 10.30, and the last number left the office at 10.40.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, AUGUST 17th, 1870.

The mail news of the Daily Press will be published at 7 A.M. to-morrow.

This Edition and the materials with reference to the Tientsin disturbances are of an extremely unsatisfactory nature. As noticed yesterday, the final Imperial Edict does not admit the Roman Catholic Missionaries of being concerned in kidnapping and in kidnapping children's eyes; but, on the contrary, leaves it to be distinctly inferred that, in some instances they did so; while it will be noticed that the charge made to the effect that the whole disturbance arose in consequence of Mons. FORTANIER firing off a pistol in CHOW HOA's garden, which has now been abundantly proved to be false, is steadily adhered to. The pistol was fired by Mr. FORTANIER on his way back from CHOW HOA's after he had received a spear wound at the yamen gate, and upon his seeing Mr. SRAO fell in the street by a sword cut. Notwithstanding this, the Authorities still adhere persistently to the falsehood that the people rose in consequence of the shot supposed to have been fired in the Yamen; a statement, whose untruth is manifest, inasmuch as the attack on the Consulate commenced before the Consul left, and very shortly after Mons. FORTANIER's departure. Mr. THOMASIAN was there murdered. In the memorial, which CHOW HOA presents, praying to be punished—a prayer which he may yet possibly find more fully complied with than he deserves—he makes the same misstatement, representing the whole affair as a sudden outbreak of the people on the pistol being fired, while he falls into the unfortunate inconsistency of at the same time asking that the Intendant of Circuit may be punished for incapacity to adopt, before the outbreak, the measures necessary to have prevented it. If it resulted merely from the "ten thousand" people becoming excited, and was, in point of fact, a mere accident, it is somewhat difficult to understand what particular measures were to be taken to prevent it. The suggestion in this part of the memorial shows that, according to the Chinese Officials' own admission, the affair was no sudden outbreak, but had been carefully planned—as is also shown conclusively by a large concurrence of circumstances.

It is in fact evident that the Chinese, as unfortunately is always their custom, will not grant satisfaction for the outrage to anything but fear. The men, who have been appointed to "investigate," TANG-KO-KAI and CHOW HOA, the latter proved to be the former currently reported, to be deeply concerned in the affair, offer security for a peaceful solution of the difficulty. It seems that in reality the whole question turns upon the will of TANG-KO-KAI, and he is notorious for the hostility which he has long entertained towards foreigners. If he refuse compliance with the orders from Peking, all that is known of his goes to show that the authorities there will be unable to "force" him to obey. He has for a lengthened time defied them, it is certain that he will not risk his credit with his adherents by yielding to their commands at such a crisis as the present. The chief hope of a peaceful solution consists in the possibility that TANG-KO-KAI's party may be overpowered so soon as they see distinct evidence of a determination on the part of foreigners to resort to force, if the demands made be not complied with. The experience of all our dealings with the Chinese shows that ulterior considerations will not affect them in cases of this kind. There are no used to evasion, that, until they see the force actually marshalled for an attack, they cannot be brought to believe that one will occur. Up to the present, they have evidently done nothing more than temporise, and it is to be feared, until some very definite action be taken, they will continue in this attitude, to the farther danger of foreigners, and ultimately to still further danger and disaster to themselves.

The northern papers announce the departure of Sir EDWARD HOERNER, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for China, and Japan, and are unanimous in their eulogiums of his conduct, both in his official and private capacity, during his five years' tenure of office. As already noticed, a very flattering address was presented to him by the Shanghai community, so that it appears the newspapers are giving utterance only to the feeling of respect generally current, and which, being no question, is well merited. Sir EDWARD HOERNER has to perform the somewhat delicate task of establishing on the basis of the exterritorial jurisdiction, at the Treaty Ports, a system of legal proceedings which, while in the main it should be consonant with the principles of English Law, should nevertheless be made applicable to the peculiar circumstances existing in China and Japan. In doing this, it must be confessed he has succeeded admirably. A shrewd lawyer, and one well versed in home procedure, he never allowed himself to be carried away by mere formalities or routine; but, with a happy intuition, seized the true bearing of every point, and dealt always towards the administration of the Law in its broad spirit, and in accordance with its obvious ends. In this, he set an admirable example and encouraged a tone of sound common sense in the proceedings in Court, while he invariably discouraged technical quibbling, when opposed to the broad justice of any given case. As is noticed by the northern papers, the chief proof of his success as a Judge, is that very few of his decisions have been reversed on appeal; while, as a rule, suitors have felt satisfied that the fullest care and consideration has been given to their cases. With the local Bar, Sir EDWARD HOERNER was always upon terms of agreement, and he continued, by his genial and courteous disposition, to elevate both their position and his own—causing a tone of orderliness and dignity to pervade the Courts, which has tended greatly to raise both the Legal Profession and the Law in the eyes of the public.

On the whole, very few will be disposed to deny that Sir EDWARD HOERNER has accomplished the task which devolved upon him ably, or to doubt that the Courts, which he has inaugurated, will be a permanent good to residents in China. Out of Court, Sir EDWARD HOERNER commanded much respect by the manner in which he joined in all matters of public interest; and in many instances, his advice and assistance have been of great advantage; while, as a private gentleman, he won the good opinion of all by the natural courtesy and gentleness of his bearing. His departure cannot but be a matter of regret, and it is not too much to say that he carries with him the good wishes of all, who have had an opportunity of becoming acquainted with his merits, either in his public or private capacity. It is fortunate that he leaves an able successor in Mr. C. W. GOODWIN, a gentleman not only celebrated for his learning, but well known for his dignity of character, his strict sense of justice, and his untiring care in estimating the merits of the cases that come before him.

Latest advice from Bombay states that the principles Elmslie, Whitwell, Harriot, and Marks, convicted of burning the Aurora, were sentenced on the 20th July—Elmslie and Whitwell to Penal Servitude for life, Captain Harriot to fifteen, and Marks the carpenter to ten years penal servitude.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

BREVON JAMES RUSSELL, Esq. August 16th.

NOT A "BENICIA" BOY.

Michael Conway, of Ireland, a seaman belonging to the Wong, was arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

BENICIA BOY, A BROTHER.

William J. Burke, of France, Frank Hayward, of the Wong, and William Brown, of the Wong, were arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

AN INJURED MAN.

John Taylor, A.B., British Burglar, Yenka, was arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

THEIR LARGE GRANITE DOCK, of the length of 100 feet, and of an average spring tide of 16 to 17 feet, is a CAISSON GATE, and POWERFUL CENTRAL. And an Engineer's workshop fitted with Lathes and Drills, driven by steam. Iron and Brass Foundries, Boiler-makers shop, a large Smithy, and Carpenter and Boat-builders' shops. All superintended by resident Europeans.

Their two smaller GRANITE DOCKS can receive, at spring tide, Vessels drawing 15 feet.

Spars, Timber, and other Dock-yard material kept in stock.

Quarries for OFFICE, and a DRY GROUND for STORES, of Vessels under repair.

At 211, Amoy, December, 1868.

FOUR-ROW DOCK.

RIVER MINE.

THE above granite DOCK, of the following dimensions, viz: Length, 100 feet, Breadth at Bottom, 40 feet, is capable of receiving Vessels drawing 13 to 16 feet, as the state of the River will allow. The Dock runs dry to the Blocks and is pumped out by Steam. The above premises comprise a large Machine Shop, containing a 12-inch SCREW CUTTING GAIR LATHES.

DRILLING AND HEAVING MACHINES, A LARGE SHED, &c., &c., &c. Large STOCK of WOOD, IRON, &c., always on hand. The Dock Steam Tug WONG is available at all times to tow vessels to or from Sea, at current rates, on application to

JOHN C. HENNING, Agent.

The List of Charges for lighting or re-lighting vessels can be obtained from Messrs. DE SILVA & CO., Hongkong.

Messrs. LANE, GARDNER & CO., Shanghai, if desired.

The Chronicle and Directory for 1870.

NOW READY.

The Edition for 1870 is now ready for Delivery.

As already announced, the Directory is published in Two Forms: Complete at $5, or with the List of Residents and Port Directories only, at $3.

Copy may be obtained at the Daily Press Office, and of the following Agents:—

Messrs. DUNN & CO. S.W. Canton.

Messrs. WILSON, NICHOLSON & CO., Amoy.

The delivery of the Daily Press from this office commenced on Tuesday morning at 10.30, and the last number left the office at 10.40.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, AUGUST 17th, 1870.

The mail news of the Daily Press will be published at 7 A.M. to-morrow.

This Edition and the materials with reference to the Tientsin disturbances are of an extremely unsatisfactory nature. As noticed yesterday, the final Imperial Edict does not admit the Roman Catholic Missionaries of being concerned in kidnapping and in kidnapping children's eyes; but, on the contrary, leaves it to be distinctly inferred that, in some instances they did so; while it will be noticed that the charge made to the effect that the whole disturbance arose in consequence of Mons. FORTANIER firing off a pistol in CHOW HOA's garden, which has now been abundantly proved to be false, is steadily adhered to. The pistol was fired by Mr. FORTANIER on his way back from CHOW HOA's after he had received a spear wound at the yamen gate, and upon his seeing Mr. SRAO fell in the street by a sword cut. Notwithstanding this, the Authorities still adhere persistently to the falsehood that the people rose in consequence of the shot supposed to have been fired in the Yamen; a statement, whose untruth is manifest, inasmuch as the attack on the Consulate commenced before the Consul left, and very shortly after Mons. FORTANIER's departure. Mr. THOMASIAN was there murdered. In the memorial, which CHOW HOA presents, praying to be punished—a prayer which he may yet possibly find more fully complied with than he deserves—he makes the same misstatement, representing the whole affair as a sudden outbreak of the people on the pistol being fired, while he falls into the unfortunate inconsistency of at the same time asking that the Intendant of Circuit may be punished for incapacity to adopt, before the outbreak, the measures necessary to have prevented it. If it resulted merely from the "ten thousand" people becoming excited, and was, in point of fact, a mere accident, it is somewhat difficult to understand what particular measures were to be taken to prevent it. The suggestion in this part of the memorial shows that, according to the Chinese Officials' own admission, the affair was no sudden outbreak, but had been carefully planned—as is also shown conclusively by a large concurrence of circumstances.

It is in fact evident that the Chinese, as unfortunately is always their custom, will not grant satisfaction for the outrage to anything but fear. The men, who have been appointed to "investigate," TANG-KO-KAI and CHOW HOA, the latter proved to be the former currently reported, to be deeply concerned in the affair, offer security for a peaceful solution of the difficulty. It seems that in reality the whole question turns upon the will of TANG-KO-KAI, and he is notorious for the hostility which he has long entertained towards foreigners. If he refuse compliance with the orders from Peking, all that is known of his goes to show that the authorities there will be unable to "force" him to obey. He has for a lengthened time defied them, it is certain that he will not risk his credit with his adherents by yielding to their commands at such a crisis as the present. The chief hope of a peaceful solution consists in the possibility that TANG-KO-KAI's party may be overpowered so soon as they see distinct evidence of a determination on the part of foreigners to resort to force, if the demands made be not complied with. The experience of all our dealings with the Chinese shows that ulterior considerations will not affect them in cases of this kind. There are no used to evasion, that, until they see the force actually marshalled for an attack, they cannot be brought to believe that one will occur. Up to the present, they have evidently done nothing more than temporise, and it is to be feared, until some very definite action be taken, they will continue in this attitude, to the farther danger of foreigners, and ultimately to still further danger and disaster to themselves.

The northern papers announce the departure of Sir EDWARD HOERNER, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for China, and Japan, and are unanimous in their eulogiums of his conduct, both in his official and private capacity, during his five years' tenure of office. As already noticed, a very flattering address was presented to him by the Shanghai community, so that it appears the newspapers are giving utterance only to the feeling of respect generally current, and which, being no question, is well merited. Sir EDWARD HOERNER has to perform the somewhat delicate task of establishing on the basis of the exterritorial jurisdiction, at the Treaty Ports, a system of legal proceedings which, while in the main it should be consonant with the principles of English Law, should nevertheless be made applicable to the peculiar circumstances existing in China and Japan. In doing this, it must be confessed he has succeeded admirably. A shrewd lawyer, and one well versed in home procedure, he never allowed himself to be carried away by mere formalities or routine; but, with a happy intuition, seized the true bearing of every point, and dealt always towards the administration of the Law in its broad spirit, and in accordance with its obvious ends. In this, he set an admirable example and encouraged a tone of sound common sense in the proceedings in Court, while he invariably discouraged technical quibbling, when opposed to the broad justice of any given case. As is noticed by the northern papers, the chief proof of his success as a Judge, is that very few of his decisions have been reversed on appeal; while, as a rule, suitors have felt satisfied that the fullest care and consideration has been given to their cases. With the local Bar, Sir EDWARD HOERNER was always upon terms of agreement, and he continued, by his genial and courteous disposition, to elevate both their position and his own—causing a tone of orderliness and dignity to pervade the Courts, which has tended greatly to raise both the Legal Profession and the Law in the eyes of the public.

On the whole, very few will be disposed to deny that Sir EDWARD HOERNER has accomplished the task which devolved upon him ably, or to doubt that the Courts, which he has inaugurated, will be a permanent good to residents in China. Out of Court, Sir EDWARD HOERNER commanded much respect by the manner in which he joined in all matters of public interest; and in many instances, his advice and assistance have been of great advantage; while, as a private gentleman, he won the good opinion of all by the natural courtesy and gentleness of his bearing. His departure cannot but be a matter of regret, and it is not too much to say that he carries with him the good wishes of all, who have had an opportunity of becoming acquainted with his merits, either in his public or private capacity. It is fortunate that he leaves an able successor in Mr. C. W. GOODWIN, a gentleman not only celebrated for his learning, but well known for his dignity of character, his strict sense of justice, and his untiring care in estimating the merits of the cases that come before him.

Latest advice from Bombay states that the principles Elmslie, Whitwell, Harriot, and Marks, convicted of burning the Aurora, were sentenced on the 20th July—Elmslie and Whitwell to Penal Servitude for life, Captain Harriot to fifteen, and Marks the carpenter to ten years penal servitude.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

BREVON JAMES RUSSELL, Esq. August 16th.

NOT A "BENICIA" BOY.

Michael Conway, of Ireland, a seaman belonging to the Wong, was arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and the Commander of the Wong, but the infant was not the same as the one who was found on the 14th inst. and gone to a public house, and while he was standing there, Conway entered, and going up to him, struck him on the face, and then took him by the collar, and dragged him to the entrance of David Nolin, who witnessed the assault, but he hit a large piece out of Conway's head.

BENICIA BOY, A BROTHER.

William J. Burke, of France, Frank Hayward, of the Wong, and William Brown, of the Wong, were arrested on the 16th inst. for having stolen a large piece out of the crew of William Bennett, an unemployed seaman, who was on board the Wong, at the Queen's Road West. The police found an infant at the request of the U.S. Consul and

